

SEDA Fellowship Briefing and Development Day

Monday 30th March 2009, 10am to 4pm
ACU, Woburn House, London WC1

The SEDA Fellowship Scheme

Higher education is changing more rapidly than ever and many staff work in a development role with their academic colleagues to support these changes. Such staff include those in educational development or learning technologies units, the Higher Education Academy (centrally and Subject Centres), National Teaching Fellows, FDTL project teams, staff in the Centres for Excellence in Teaching and Learning, and staff in departments taking a lead in learning and teaching.

If this is you, then the SEDA Fellowship professional accreditation scheme will provide an opportunity for you to recognise, develop and demonstrate your strengths and potential.

If you would like to learn more about the scheme check out the SEDA website at <http://www.seda.ac.uk>

The Briefing and Development Day

If you are thinking seriously about enrolling in the Fellowship then why not attend one of our briefing and development days? These are run by SEDA Fellowship holders who will give you a clear idea of what is needed.

If you are already registered, the day will give you additional support and motivation.

Whatever stage you are at, this event will help you to:

- Reflect on your continuing development
- Progress your Fellowship plans
- Meet other Fellowship candidates
- Look at Fellowship portfolios
- Discuss the practical and professional issues involved in undertaking the Fellowship
- Plan the work you need for your submission
- If appropriate, prepare for the interview.

The fee is £60 per person (to include refreshments and lunch). To register please complete the form overleaf and return it to the SEDA Office
